THE EDITOR MISUNDERSTOOD.

Hollins, Va., Sept. 8, 1914.
To the Editor of The Clinch Valley News:

My Dear Sir: Please allow me space in your valuable paper to make some corrections to your version of my speech made when I had the honor conferred upon myself of introducing to my Sunday school (in Carvins Cove) the Vice-President of the United States and his friend Senator John W. Kern both of Ind. No Mr. Editor my legs did not wobble as you stated in your paper nor did I stutter or stammer about naming the place they were from. I must admit and you must do the same that having such a task to perform before such distinguished guests it was not the easiest thing to do. You might imagine, though the task was hard and notice short the folk present said that I delivered the goods awright and they seemed to be proud that they had a man who had been at the head of their Sunday school for 30 odd years and they were not ashamed of Mr. Kern. It was a real letter day for our school and I must say that it was the best thing that has ever happened to our school few schools can boast of such honor and it is more than likely that we would have missed this honor but for the fact that that noble family our school, as you know they live in their summer home in our neighborhood which we look upon as a great blessing to us as they are greatly interested in us and our school, are continually giving us sum great treat the senator's wife and cousin have each a class in our school and no school is more proud of their teachers than we are. So Mr. Editor you see that we have no intelligence in Carvins Cove as any where else according to Population so you cant wonder that I feel a little sore over the picture you drew of us on that grand occasion.

Respect—Your Boyhood Chum,
J. H. LAYMAN.

WHY WHITMAN WAS ELECTED.

To the Editor of The World:

Mr. Whitman has the capacity and ability to hold the position of Governor with credit to himself and honor to the State of New York; but was he elected only because of his great executive ability?

No, he was not. He was elected because the intelligent and level-headed citizens of this State had decided that it was about time to get rid of the three most troublesome (or evil) conditions that have ever existed in any State in the Union—namely:

Mr. Charles F. Murphy (who, by the way, "hoped" Mr. Whitman may fill the great office of Governor as conscientiously and worthily as his predecessor, Gov. Glynn") and Tammany Hall;

Mr. Theodore Roosevelt and his clan of Progressive and amateur politicians; and last, but not least, Mr. William R. Hearst, who, by the way, had the good sense, for once only, to say nothing, as there was nothing for him to say.

These are the three reasons, the very best of reasons, why Mr. Glynn was defeated and Mr. Whitman elected. The people had to get rid of this three-ring circus, and they did.

GAY LIFE IN THE CITY.

It's about time to put the kibosh on all this talk about keeping the boys on the farm. Why should a boy or young man want to stay on a farm when he can go to the city, and after tramping through the heat, or cold, or snow for five or six weeks, land a fine fat job as a soft soap of a job as a motorman? Then all he will have to do will be to get up at about 5 a. m. winter and summer, swallow a boarding house breakfast that a hog on his father's farm would spurn, dash merrily to the car, take the abuse of a slave-driving car-starter and go gallily to work. Ah, what pleasure to stand all day in a vestibule that is washed with the smells of the unwashed bodies of just-over-immigrant laborers, on their way to work in a sewer! Think of the fragrance of all grades of tobacco in cigarettes, in cigars and in pipes of many degrees of strength. It is simply great to breathe this spicy air all day. In the meantime one hears the sweet compliments of the ladies and gentlemen who do not happen to think of signaling when they want to get off, but who rightfully feel that the motorman should have known, if he was not such a fat-headed job, and who do not hesitate to tell him so. Oh yes, it's great. Every farmer boy ought to leave home at once and go to the city. Think of the wages he'll get! Why, at the end of a month, after paying for board, room, laundry, clothes and uniform, union dues and assessments, he'll be almost enough to go to a movie show. But he probably won't go, because he'll be so all-in and so full of the poisonous reek that he inhaled all day, that he will tumble into bed to forget it until the alarm clock calls him to begin all over again.—Exchange.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church was nicely entertained in the home of Mrs. R. B. Platt Thursday afternoon, Nov. 6th. The weather being fine, a large number of ladies were present with all the interest, which is a characteristic of this body. The subject for study was "Conquest of the Cross Over Darkness," able study: "Jesus Christ the Evangelistic Missionary." Mrs. Doak had prepared the program, and gave the Bible readings and comments, after which Mrs. Mary O'Keefe led in earnest prayer. Mrs. O'Keefe also gave a very uplifting talk. Mrs. Charles Jones gave the news of the month bearing on our missionary work, gleaned from articles from the Missionary Voice. The work of the M. E. C. S. in Africa was given by Mrs. D. P. Hurley. LIFE OF MAN AND HORSE IN WAR.

Some idea of the fearful loss of life in the European war is gained by the statement of English army officers now in the United States purchasing horses. When asked why inferior mounts were purchased for cavalry they replied that as the average life of a horse on the great battle lines in France and Belgium is but three or four days there is no need of high-bred horses whose lives would not last a week on the firing line. The comparative figure on the life of the soldiers of the several nations when actually in conflict has been estimated as follows: German, five days; French and Belgian, six days; English, seven days; Serbian, eight days; Russian, nine days. The average life of an horse for the same countries when used in the battle line is: German, three days; English and Belgian, four days; French, Russian and Serbian, five days. The average life of a man on the firing line, using the combined figures, is shown to be only six and five-sixths days and that of a horse four and one-third days. This awful mortality makes such bloody battles as Pickett's charge at Gettysburg and the fight at the "Bloody Angle" in our Civil War, the slaughter of the immortal charge of the Light Brigade at the Crimean War, seem commonplace and insignificant.—Tide-water News.

A Recipe for a Happy Home.

Begin each day with a song of praise,
For the Father-love so true,
That through the hours of another night
Hath cared for and guarded you.
Give praise for another day on earth,
For another rising sun;
For the day that opens with praise to God
Is surely well begun!

Begin each day with an humble prayer;
Seeking help from the Father's hand;
For the grace and strength of yesterday
Will not do for today's demand.
Each hour brings with it its pressing need,
If in meeting these you would well succeed.
Begin each day with prayer.

Begin each day with a happy smile,
And a word of hearty cheer
For those you meet as you pass along,
Whether strangers or loved ones dear.
For a day begun with praise and prayer,
Or with balm for another's pain,
Will close with joy, and bring sweet repose
When the night shall come again.

Mrs. Charles Jones gave the news of the month bearing on our missionary work, gleaned from articles from the Missionary Voice. The work of the M. E. C. S. in Africa was given by Mrs. D. P. Hurley. She also gave the news of the Bulletin. In this "Bulletin" we are informed that China will send six girls from our Mc. Geyre school to America this year to our colleges to be educated, using the indemnity money returned to the Chinese government by the United States after the Boxer trouble.

Mrs. Tynes took the chair, and after transaction of the usual business the meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. O'Keefe in December. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church was nicely entertained in the home of Mrs. R. B. Platt Thursday afternoon, Nov. 6th. The weather being fine, a large number of ladies were present with all the interest, which is a characteristic of this body. The subject for study was "Conquest of the Cross Over Darkness," able study: "Jesus Christ the Evangelistic Missionary." Mrs. Doak had prepared the program, and gave the Bible readings and comments, after which Mrs. Mary O'Keefe led in earnest prayer. Mrs. O'Keefe also gave a very uplifting talk.
